Dear Peerzada Saheb,

I have your letter of the 16th April. I will consider it an honour to be Chief Patron of the National Solidarity Day celebration Committee.

I am glad that the 72nd birthday of the late President, Janab Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed Saheb is going to be celebrated this year as National Solidarity Day. The late President represented in his person the unity and solidarity of all the communities that make up our nation. It is, therefore, appropriate that his birthday is being celebrated as a national solidarity day. Let us all forget on this day our sectional, communal, linguistic and all other identities and think of ourselves as Indians above and before everything else. Let us vow on this day to make our nation worthy of its history and its great leaders of the modern times from Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru down to Janab Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed Saheb.

My best wishes for the success of your function.

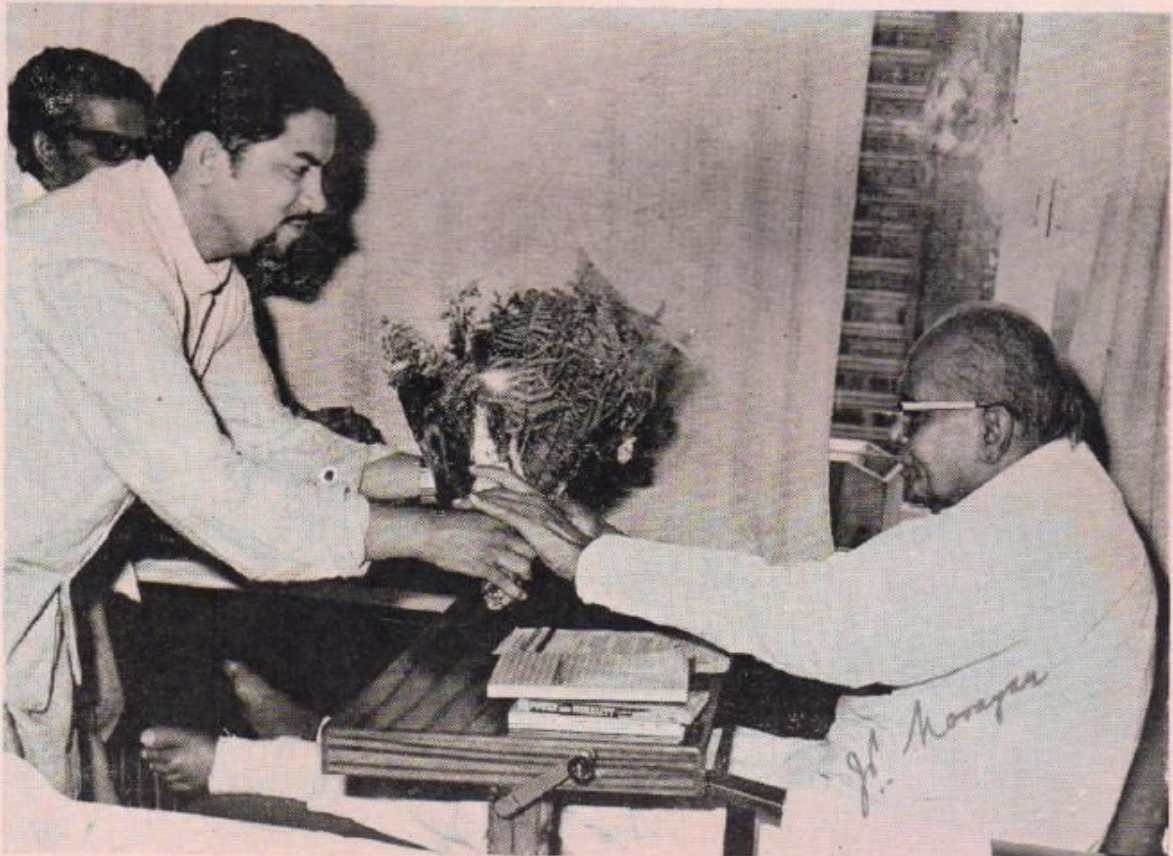

Jayaprakash Narayan
