BRIEF INTRODUCTION

Moulana Peerzada Shabbir Naqshbandi was born in an eminent Sufi (Tharikhath) Family of India in the year 1950 in Hyderabad, A.P. His Great Grand Father Hazrath Syed Mohd. Arab Madani had left from Holy City of Madina-Monawara (Saudi Arabia) two centuries ago. On the way to India he played a role as MUBALIG-E-ISLAM and he propagated teachings of Prophet of Islam "Hazrath Mohammed" (Peace be upon him) and he settled in Hyderabad. After his demise his son Hazrath Syed Iftekhhar Ali Shah Watan, performed his fathers' duties in Hyderabad. Hazrath Watan was a great SUFI poet, who had written so many books on spiritualism (TASUF).

After his death his son Hazrath Syed Moinullah Hassaini (RH) took the charges as "Mubalig-e-Islam" Preacher of Message of Islam.

After he passes away his Son H.H. Hazrath PEERCHISTI SYED VALIULLAH HUSSAINI, who also became a "SHEIKHUL HIND" (Grand Sheikh of India) and played significant role for International peace and Universal Brotherhood. He founded All India Religious Leaders' Association in the year 1935 with the aim to make all religion in one platform to serve to humanity. Being a great SUFI SAINT of South India a large number of people belonging to different communities approached him for his blessings. Before and after Independence of India, prominent national leaders including the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Patel, Moulana Azad, Frontier Gandhi, Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan, Mohammed Ali Jinnah came into contact with him. The former President of India Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed was also a great admirer and devotee of H.H. Hazrath Peer Chisti.

In the year 1971 after the death of Hazrath Peer Chisti, his son Moulana Peerzada Shabbir Naqshbandi has decided to continue his fore-father's holy missions in India and Abroad. Peerzada who is basically by profession is a journalist, but he was also a Honorary Adviser to the former President of India late Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed during his tenure i.e. 1974-77.

Being close association with all the Indian heads of the country Peerzada has a privilege to come into close contact with the national and International personalities including late President of India Mr. V.V. Giri to the present President Mr. K. R. Narayanan, the Prime Minister of India, late Mrs. Indira Gandhi to the present Prime Minister Mr. A.B. Vajpayee, King Khalid Bin Abdul Aziz of Saudi Arabia, Mr. Yasar Arfath of Palestine, Mr. Anwarus-Sadath of Egypt, Mr. Hafiz Al Asad of Syria, Mr. Hikmat Al-Azawi, Deputy Prime Minister of Iraq, Pop John Paul II, Prince Karim Agakhan, Allama Tantavi Grand Sheikh of Al-Azhar, Cairo, Moulana Akrama Sabri Grand Mufti of Palestine, H.H. Dr. Syedna Mohd. Burhanuddin, spiritual leader of Bohra Community, Moulana Syed Ahmed Kumainy son of Imam Kumainy, Revolutionary leader of Islamic Republic of Iran.

In the year 1976 Mr. Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed, the then President of India had released a book entitled "Promising Light of Secular India" on the life and activities of the Peerzada. In the year 1977 the founder of the janata Government of India Mr. Jayaprakash Narayan had released another pictorial booklet on the life of Peerzada Shabbir Naqshbandi entitled "Messenger of Peace".

In the year 1980 Mrs. Indira Gandhi insisted him to take active part in politics, but he refused due to his family backgrounds and he decided to continue their spiritual missions for propagation of love and peace among the people.

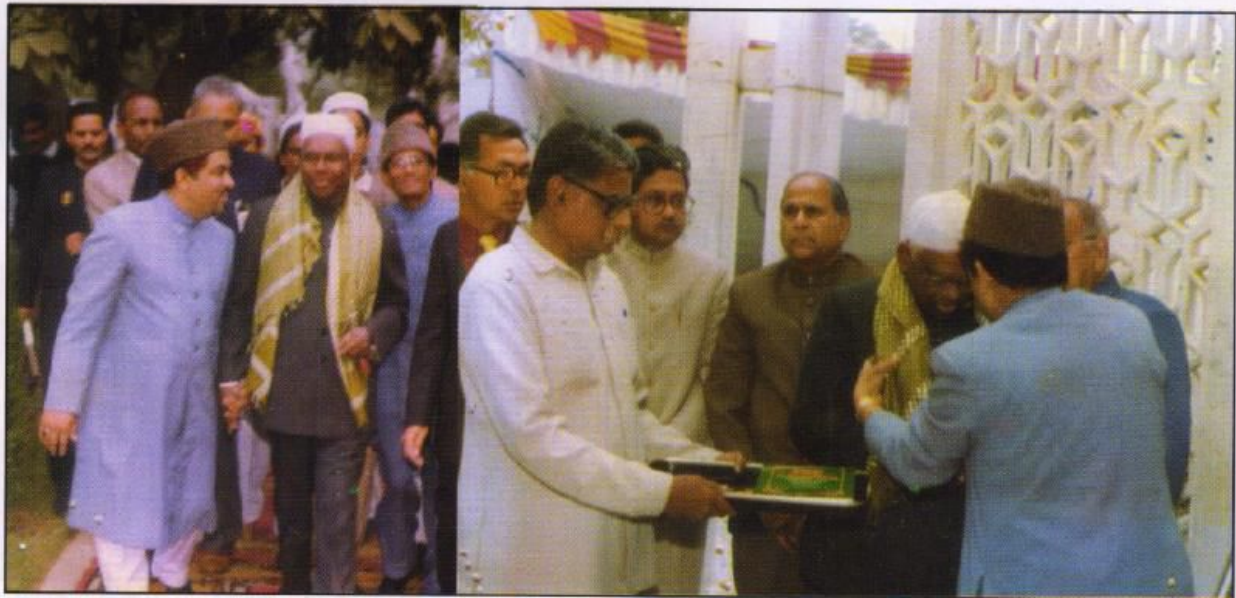

On his proposal Mrs. Indira Gandhi had allotted an Official Accommodation in 1980 by the approval of the Cabinet Committee, Government of India, to set up Ekta Bhavan (House of Unity), behind Prime Ministers' Office, South Block, New Delhi. And being a founder and Chief of the Ekta Bhavan Peerzada had played an important role from time to time to further strengthen the relation between India and other countries, particularly with the Islamic World on people to people level out of routine diplomatic channel for International Peace and Universal Brotherhood.

Peerzada Shabbir has also organized Quranic Spiritual Campaign in the holy month of Ramzan since 1990. And he invited Islamic Scholars (Quarries) from different parts of the world. As a gesture of tolerance the Religious Leaders belonging to different faiths also extended their co-operation for the success of Quranic Campaign, the Governors and the Chief Ministers of the different states in the country received warmly to the visiting spiritual delegation during their stay in respective states. Particularly the peoples' Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh Mr. N. Chandrababu Naidu, always extends his whole-hearted support for the success of Holy Quranic Campaign and his Telugu Dessam Government, since last four years providing all possible assistance during the Campaign and treating the visiting Quarries as "State Government Guests".

On the representation made by Peerzada in the year 1999 and on the directions of the Prime Minister of India, Mr. A.B. Vajpayee and through the good efforts of Mr. Jaswant Singh, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Govt. of India, the Indian Counsel for Cultural Relations (ICCR) (Ministry of External Affairs) has issued the orders to continue to provide local hospitalities to the visiting Quarries of Egypt and other countries during their stay in India in the Holy month of Ramzan. At present, Peerzada is continuing the Holy mission in India, which was started by his fore-fathers from the land of Madina-Munawara about 200 years ago.
